

Interested in becoming a trauma center or learning more about Indiana's statewide trauma system? Attend an Optimal Course in Indianapolis, IN
Friday, October 11, 2013

WHO

The Optimal Trauma Center Organization & Management Course (Optimal) is being hosted by the Indiana State Department of Health and the Indiana Hospital Association.

WHAT

The course includes:

- Prehospital Care, Trauma Systems & Trauma Center Leadership
- Clinical Functions & Collaborative Clinical Services
- Performance Improvement, Patient Safety & Trauma Registry
- Special Populations
- Trauma Program Pearls
- Program Responsibilities
- Site Visit Process
- State trauma officials will attend and offer perspective on the development of the statewide trauma system

WHEN

Friday, October 11, 2013

WHERE

Indiana Government Center - South
Conference Room 22
302 West Washington Street
Indianapolis, IN 46204

WHY

Whether a verified mature center or a hospital preparing for designation, this course is designed to assist participants to create strategies, processes, and operations to support trauma systems based upon their own unique environments. This course is an educational activity collaboration with representatives from the Society of Trauma Nurses and the American College of Surgeons Committee on Trauma.

HOW

For more information and to register visit www.traumanurses.org.

$350 for physicians and nurses

SPECIAL OFFER

The Indiana State Department of Health is offering a buy one, get one free promotion to eligible attendees. Individuals utilizing the promotion will need to complete and return their forms together with applicable payment. If you have questions about your eligibility, please contact Sarah Clements at STN Headquarters.

Call or email Sarah Clements at 859-977-7442 or sclements@traumanurses.org with questions.